EBME Expo

The EBME Expo is the UK's leading event for healthcare professionals responsible for managing and purchasing medical equipment. As an international medical equipment manufacturer, this is your opportunity to expand into the UK healthcare market. Meet decision-makers, network with key procurement officers, and showcase your latest products and technology to the right people at the right time.

Connect with Decision-Makers

- Direct access to NHS procurement officers, hospital managers, and private leaders shaping UK healthcare purchasing.
- Network with executives and officials ready to make impactful purchasing decisions.

Thriving UK Healthcare Market

- £192 Billion NHS Budget (2024/25) with a strong focus on primary care, and digital innovation.
- The UK's medical device market is the third-largest in Europe, projected to hit $25.58 billion by 2029.

Growing Demand for Technology

- With 18% of the UK population over 65, there's rising demand for medical devices and digital health solutions.

Event Highlights

- 1700+ healthcare professionals and 165+ global exhibitors showcasing the latest innovations.
- Our 4 conferences running alongside the exhibition are set to attract a high-quality audience:
  - Biomedical and Clinical Engineering Conference
  - Operating Theatre Conference
  - Healthcare Procurement Conference
  - Healthcare Training Conference

Why EBME Expo?

- Trusted by the industry for over 15 years.

“One of the UK’s largest expos in the sector, it provides a fantastic opportunity for us to connect with engineers, engage with other suppliers, and stay updated on market trends and customer experiences. Being here is incredibly important to Zoll. We get to network extensively, and it has been very busy. The EBME Expo is truly inspiring, with high foot traffic, many customers, and plenty of inspiring people.”

Vicky Roberts, Zoll

2024 SHOW SUMMARY

1700+ Attendees

165+ Exhibitors

50+ Leading Industry Speakers

16th Annual Event

“We find the EBME Expo incredibly beneficial as a business as we get to engage with our key customers within the biomedical engineering space. It is amazing, it’s a really worthwhile investment the conversations we have had are super.”

Huw Harrison Nihon Kohden

£192 Billion
NHS Budget (2024/25)

Over 1200 hospitals and more than 200 NHS trusts across the UK require advanced medical technology.

Direct access to NHS procurement managers and private healthcare buyers.

Held at CBS Arena, Coventry an accessible hub for international exhibitors.

"We've been exhibiting for about 15 years; it is a very interesting exhibition to come to you get a strong footfall of visitors, all interested in your products. It is a major networking exercise for us. By exhibiting at EBME Expo you will be guaranteed to meet the people who maintain the equipment you want to sell to them and they are major influences in the buying decision."
